

Pouhi

CAMERAMAN: GEORGE RICHARDSON. SILENT.

1st May & 2nd of June, 1952.

Flushing, HOLLAND.

UNVEILING OF MEMORIAL TO NO. 4 COMMANDOS.

ROLL ONE.

St. Jacob's Church - where a service was held.
Coming out of service - Green Berets mixed with Dutch people.
The March through the Town.
Various shots - Navy men of H.M.S. Opportune. French Navy off
Frigate La Suprise & the Commandos - Cheering crowds & types.
G.V. of the ceremony.
Mr. C. Staff Dutch Minister of War & of Navy addressing Assembly.
Crowd shots - V.I.P's - Parade shots.

ROLL TWO

Shots of Dutch Children giving peppermints to R.Navy men.
Commando types, C.U. French and British.
The Unveiling by Mr. C. Staff.
Placing of Wreaths 1. by Mr. C. Staff 2. The Commando - Maj. Gen.
B.W. Leicester D.S.O. 3. The British Ambassador Sir Neville Montague
Butler 4. The French Ambassador. 5. The Burgomaster of Flushing
Dr. B. Kulff.

ROLL THREE.

Children lay wreaths.
V.I.P's walk round statue.
Green berets & Dutch people look at memorial.
Writing on Memorial. 2nd JUNE.
Before leaving on Board H.M.S. Opportune, the Green Berets wanted to leave behind as a memento, a green beret with the Mayor of Flushing.
Maj. Gen. Laycock presented it to Dr. B. Kolff and on cries from the men, he put it on. They gave him three cheers.
Departure pictures from Flushing on Crowds.

-----

ROTA TO ALL COMPANIES.

ALSO COVERED BY:- POLYGOON.