

WINSTON CELEBRATES

All wrapped up and ready for the races, Mr. Churchill and his wife set off for Kempton Park to see his horse "Nonstop" run in the 3.30. The Prime Minister is to celebrate his 78 th birthday so, not far away, the finishing touches are being put to his cake. A cigar-shaped candle, and panels representing the four seasons are part of the decorations.

Flowers for the famous man are among the hundreds of gifts that pour in from all over the world. Telegrams, birthday cards and letters have kept the post office busy for days. A crowd soon gathers on Mr. Churchill's birthday - and what a grin he gives them on this happy day.

The Churchill's pet poodle is left behind as the Premier leaves with his daughter Mary. To the grand old man (still young at heart) we wish many happy returns.
