MUNICH BEER FESTIVAL.

If you want to know what Blackpool would be like with a German accent, then off you go to Munich. They're holding their annual festival out there - and what a show it is. But if you can't take it and feel like a pick-me-up after a bout of this - well Munich supplies the answer - by the gallon. The beer, which has made the city famous probably accounts for the fact that, although its called Munich's October Festival, they hold it in September they just can't wait that long.

When they've eaten their way down to the wishbones, then it's back to the fun-fair again.

Don't think they've finished the festival yet. Remember, they don't close the pubs our there.

THE MUNICH OCTOBER FESTIVAL

The traditional beer festival the Munich "Oktober Fest" was opened on the famous Meadows and right away was in full swing! It is fun galore for old and young. In October the Meadows are the rendezvous of Europe's merrymakers and every night thousands of lights illuminate the grounds where everybody is happy. This year's Oktoberfest saw a number of new attractions for people with strong nerves . . . , and healthy stomachs! As giddy as can be! But then there is also the famous Munich strong beer to pick you up again.
