RANGERS V. ABERDEEN - HAMPDEN PARK.

Rival captains tussle up at Hampden Park when Rangers meet Aberdeen in their Scottish Cup semi-final tie. More than a hundred thousand spectators are there to see if Rangers can recapture their past glories and win their way to the final tussle with Celtic.

The Ranger's goalie has not trouble with that one. Aberdeen according to the form book, should have an uphill struggle in this match, but the Rangers soon find it's certainly not going to be any walk-over. Aberdeen get the ball and away they go. Joe O'Neil has a slam - and he's scored! O'Neil, who came out of hospital only a few weeks ago, wins his team-mates congratulations.

Willy Waddle gets things moving for the Rangers.

Cox receives, but as he tries to pass it on, Aberdeen intercept and off they go again.

Buckley to Hather whose shot it just wide of the mark.

And again its Aberdeen on the attack. Now Joe O'Neil smacks it home! Two-nil.

Half-time comes, and the score's the same. Rangers take a corner and its a worrying moment for the Dons. Opponents tumble and the ball goes behind the line for another corner.

Another corner to Rangers! Out comes goalie Martin to collect.

Aberdeen take up the offensive again. Woodburn tries to stem the rush, but on goes the relentless forward machine.

Leggatt shoots - and there's the Don's third goal.

Joe O'Neil soon makes it four-nil. The Rangers come fighting back. Once or twice they frighten the Don's fans, but they just can't score.

Then Buckley takes over for Aberdeen. Goalie Brown's out of position, but its hits the bar.

In the last few minutes, the Don's take a corner. But O'Neil is fouled and that means a penalty.
