DERBY "HOPES".

With the Derby in everybody's mind, trainer Vic Smythe looks over one of his pupils at Epsom - "Infatuation" is the name.

On to Newmarket where Ted Leader's string are getting set for the great day. At his stables, Mr. Leader checks up on Blue Red, an outsider with a big chance.

Harry Wragg serves a snack to Darius, the 2,000 guineas winner and currently second favourite for the Derby.

From a hospital in Salisbury, Sir Gordon Richards leaves for home. His recent injury threatened to put him out of this year's Derby, but Sir Gordon says he'll be there. At the Queen's own request, he'll be riding Lancelot, Her Majesty's entry. Trainer Murless has high hopes of a royal victory this year. Next on the list "Klopement".

Court Splendour is another in the Murless stables. Now from Newmarket to Richmond, Yorkshire, to meet the favourite, Rowston Manor. The big chestnut colt, was sired by a former Derby winner, Pearl Diver. Like father, like son? - who knows!
