

b-48820

ROYAL CRUISE

King Paul and Queen Frederika of Greece, * aboard the destroyer "Navarrino" arrive, on Sunday morning 22nd, in Naples Port where the king officially welcomes his royal guests for a two week cruise of Greek islands on the chartered liner "Agamennon".

92 royal Princes from all Europe, take part in this cruise.

This coverage shows:

- Greek
- Princess Margaret
 - Liner "Agamennon"
 - The luggage of princes is embarked on "Agamennon"
 - Greek flag fluttering on the greek ship which took King and Queen of Greece to Naples
 - Ditto
 - "Agamennon" enters Naples Port
 - Crowd of Princes on the quay (King Paul, with spectacles and short sleeved shirt, does the honours of the house)
 - Princes go on board
 - Naples Airport: the plane of Royal Dutch family lands; Queen Giuliana with daughters comes down, followed by Prince Bernard who piloted the plane himself
 - The Prefect of Naples presents Queen Giuliana with a bunch of flowers
 - C.U. Princesses, Queen Giuliana's daughters
 - Queen Giuliana and train come out of the Airport
 - Don Juan (pretender to Spanish throne) on the deck of AGAMENNON
 - Pan shot of Agamennon with Princes on board
 - King of Greece welcomes royal princesses
 - Royal guests waiting for the sailing
 - Crews goes on board
 - Greeting among guests
 - King of Greece accompanies Duchess of Aosta (with stick) on the liner.

n.60