

55/10.

LIVERPOOL V. EVERTON.

Everton, in striped shorts, kick off at Goodison Park against Liverpool, a second division club. Everton soon force a corner and their left-winger Eglinton takes it. But nothing comes of it for the Reds quickly shape their own defensive.

Centre forward Liddell presses on, and fires one home! Liverpool one up in the first 18 minutes!

Everton sweep down on their Merseyside rivals. But, once again, they can't follow through to the net. The defence breaks up the raid and sets the ball rolling towards the Blues's end. Now Evans receives.

O'Neill is beaten. Andersen takes over the here's goal number two for Liverpool!

It stays at two-nil until half-time. Everton open the second half with an attack. They've got a long way to catch up if they're to beat Liverpool.

A hefty heet sets the Reds moving. Acourt takes a bump from Moore, but there's no harm done.

Liverpool hammer away again. Jackson fires a shot. O'Neill saves but the ball rebounds to Evans, and there's a goal number three for Liverpool!

Wainwright takes a corner and Everton pull out all the stops in an effort to crack Liverpool's defence. But Rodham saves every time. Eglinton takes another corner.

Potts back-kicks, but to no avail. In the 75th minute, Jackson teams with Evans. Evans leaps to head, and in goes Liverpool's fourth goal. Goalie O'Neill hurt his shoulder trying to save. And that's how the battle ends. Liverpool, from the second division, have given Everton an honest beating. With their 4-nil victory, Liverpool take another step on the road to Wembley.

---