

SWANSEA V. STOKE

Swansea Town in white shirts, meet Stoke City at Vetch Field. Stoke, (who spent nine hours disposing of Bury in round three) go on the defensive as Swansea throw in and the ball goes to Len Allchurch.

Left-winger Jones sends the ball back again. Len Allchurch and Bourne clash, and now its Stoke City on the move. Malkin, number eleven teams with centre-forward King.

King centres and that starts a danger period for the Swans. Malkin tries a shot, but its over.

Charles tries to take the ball out of danger, but a tackle upsets his plans. Stoke are ready to attack when Malkin gets possession, but a poor pass that goes to a rival puts Stoke back into trouble.

Hall saves. But within seconds Medwin has rattled the net and Swansea are one up!

Batcliffe tries to hit back. How to Bowyer.

At Swansea's goal, Malkin tries a shot, and there's the equaliser!

One-all is the half-time score. Allchurch tries a Swansea run, but hits the deck for his pains. Team-mate Jones has taken over.

Hall saves, and Stoke breathe again. Play swings to the Swansea end.

Jones has it. As he races upfield, a tackle sends him down in a slithering belly-flop.

Malkin heads for the Swans goal. Keane can't stop him. Now its up to Evans.

Back and fourth swings the ball until Swansea break through the Stoke defence. Iver Allchurch shoots, and Swansea take the lead again.

With time running out Malkin tries again, but the Swans defence holds firm.

"It's a goal!" and Griffiths has put another into Stoke's net! 3-1 is the score that sends Swansea on into round five.

---