

7th ROUND SCOTTISH CUP.

HEART MIDLOTHIAN V. ABERDEEN.

Heart of Midlothian (in dark shirts) kick off at Tynecastle against Aberdeen. Both teams have suffered recently with injuries, but are at full strength for this needle match. In the first few minutes, Leggatt throws in for the Dons. Team-mate Buckley outpaces Clidden - Hearts are in danger.

A wonderful save by Duff, but he can't stop the corner. Leggatt takes it, and Hearts are in trouble.

Allister heads, and Duff's beaten! Aberdeen draw the first blood.

Duff faces Buckley, but keeps the net clear. Duff's playing a great game despite that early set-back. Away go Hearts to try and crack the Den's determined defence.

Young tackles and robs Urquhart of a chance. Half-time comes with honours (if not the score) just about even. Aberdeen soon have a corner after resumption, but the Hearts defence get it away out to Soumess, number 7, on the wing.

Smith intercepts, but it's a corner to Hearts. Appropriately, it's Soumess who takes it.

Goalie Martin touches it, but Allister clears to safety. But it's not safe for long. Soumess lobs it to Bauld who cracks it into the net to level the score!

Hearts set out for another, and again it's Soumess who takes up the running. In the second half, it's Hearts nearly all the way, but try as they will they don't seem able to get it past Aberdeen's defenders.

Soumess, takes a corner, but there's still nothing doing. One -all is the final score, so Hearts and Aberdeen will meet again.
