

Monday 9th May 1955

12/15/55

DUKE OF GLOUCESTER TOUR

Reel n.1 (n.60)

CASSINO

- British war cemetery with background Montecassino Abbey
- Memorial tablets
- " "
- Memorial tablet with english script
- Tomb-stone with english inscription
- Memorial stone with italian inscription

MONTECASSINO

- Duke of Gloucester gets off his car
- " " steps towards Abbey
- Montecassino Abbey's front
- Duke of Gloucester with the Abbot, Monsignor REA, and the british Consul General from Naples
- id. id.
- id. id.
- The Abbot tells Duke of Gloucester how the Monastery was rebuilt up
- The Duke and Abbot go up the stairs
- id. id.
- The Duke and Abbot look the statues into the court-yard of the Abbey
- The Duke with the Abbot
- The Duke and the Abbot look the bronze portal
- id. id.
- Detail of the columned balustrade
- id. id.
- Stairs with S. Benedette statue
- Front of the Abbey

Monday 9th May 1955 101

DUKE OF GLOUCESTER TOUR

Reel n. 2 (n.60)

MONTECASSINO

- Front of the Abbey
- the whole Abbey
- View of Cassino from the route to the Abbey

CASSINO

- British war Cemetery seen from the route leading up to the Abbey
- Detail of the Cemetery (with tele-camera)
- Several shots of the arrival of the Duke and his suite at the Cemetery
- Two close-ups of Duke Gloucester and Marshal Alexander
- Two views of the Abbey from Cassino

The British war Cemetery of Cassino contains the remains of 4,000 British dead and is going to be enlarged. It lies on the route of the well known "Gustav Line" now called "Theodicea".

12/5/55

109124-1

Tuesday 10th May 1955

DUKE OF GLOUCESTER TOUR

ANZIO

- Arrival of Duke Gloucester at ~~Beach-head~~^{Head-beach} War Cemetery of Anzio
- Several views inside the Cemetery
- Arrival of the Duke and suite at Commonwealth War Cemetery in Anzio, close to the Italian civilian cemetery. There are buried 1056 Commonwealth's fallen
- Several views of the interior of the Cemetery
- Outgoing from the Cemetery
- Duke Gloucester gets in his car rolling away.