

7/6/55

b-004201

PATHE JOURNAL
6 Rue Francœur,
PARIS(18°)

Paris, June 6th, 1955

DUKE OF GLOUCESTER at BAYEUX MEMORIAL
Negative developed : 170 meters : 565 ft
Also covered by Actualités Françaises and Fox

For the 11th anniversary of landing of British troops in Normandy, Duke of Gloucester came over to unveil a new memorial to war deads in BAYEUX. There lay thousands of British soldiers in a British cemetery.

Ceremonies were presided by Duke of Gloucester, and Marshall Montgomery. French President of the Republic was represented by General GANEVAL. General KOENIG (in civilian clothes) French Defense Minister was also present.

After the unveiling ceremony the Duke accompanied by General Ganeval walked between the graves in the British Cemetery.