

BIG FOUR ARRIVE IN GENEVA.

The Big Four Foreign Ministers gather at Geneva. Mr. John Foster Dulles represents the U.S.A., and France's spokesman is Monsieur Antoine Pinay. This meeting has the task of giving concrete form to the spirit of the recent "Summit Talks". All four ministers, including Russia's Mr. Malotov, declare their determination to make the conference a success.

Speaking for Britain, Mr. Harold Macmillan expresses the hope that it will be fruitfull in the cause of peace.

That is the hope, not only for Britain, but of the whole world.
