

IKE & CABINET

BARUCH -- Aarseth

At Camp David -- his rustic retreat in the Catoctin Mountains of Maryland -- President Eisenhower arrives for his first ~~xxxxxxxxxxxx~~ cabinet meeting since his heart attack.

At the rustic mountain retreat, the President resumes his reigns of office.

An Air Force helicopter -- nicknamed "flying bananas" -- shuttle cabinet members -- including Vice President Nixon -- from Washington -- fifty miles to the south.

Secretary of State Dulles -- bringing a detailed report on international affairs -- Attorney General Brownell and Defense Secretary Wilson also attend the two hour meeting. During the session, the President expresses his thanks to the cabinet for its work during his illness.

On a mountain top in Maryland, a meeting at the summit with the President and his Cabinet.