

TITO VISITS ETHIOPIA.

Lion-maned warriors of Ethiopia are on parade when Haile Selassie greets Marshal Tito on his State visit to Addis Ababa. The Emperor's sons are present. Cavalry escort the Yugoslav president and the Lion of Judah through the streets of the capital to the imperial palace.

Marshal Tito's visit was not confined to formal events - it included a safari in the jungle south of Addis Ababa.

A golden key of the city is presented to the Marshal as a token of Ethiopia's welcome.
