

OLYMPIC WINNERS WELCOMED IN MOSCOW

In the morning on the 8th of January Muscovites welcome the winners of the XVI Olympic games in Melbourne. Representatives of sport organizations, plants and factories of the Soviet capital, relatives and friends of the participants in the Olympics, and many sport fans have gathered at the Yaroslav Railway Station for the occasion.

The Soviet athletes have won 98 Olympic medals in Melbourne and took first place among the teams of 68 countries -- participants in the Olympic Games.

Together with the Soviet athletes came the participants in the Olympics from Albania, Bulgaria, Hungary and Czechoslovakia.

Muscovites give the athletes a most cordial welcome.

Vladimir Kuts, the winner of two gold Olympic medals, addresses the gathering.
