

b-082501

DEUTSCHE WOCHENSCHAU GMBH.

FERNSPR.: 47 89 45/8
FERNSCHREIBER: 021-2052
TEL.-ADRESSE: WOCHENSCHAU HAMBURG
BANKKONTO: NR. 70 00 HAMBURGISCHE LANDESBANK
POSTSCHECKKONTO: HAMBURG NR. 97 33

HAMBURG 20, DEN
HEILWIGSTRASSE 116

GERMAN NEWSREEL PRODUCTION

No.370/31

State Visit NATO-Headquarters Wildenrath - Mönchen-Gladbach

Junior Prince Carneval and Boy Scouts

(ca 70,- m special exclusive sound track)

"Prince Helmut I of Aachen" arrived at Wildenrath airfield with his charming bodyguard and is welcomed by Flight Lieut. ^{William} Goode - the Scout Master of Wildenrath! (Boy Scout District Commissioner for HEINSBERG.)
Sound Track: Dear Sir! I like to say many thanks for your real kind willcome. Unluckely we had to come by autocar, as by occasion, there was no jet-aircraft at my disposition, but you can beleave Sir, that our hearts where flying to this airpert, faster than aircraft can fly. - - - - When Carneval-people are very happy or have great fun, they call "A l a a f".

The "Prince" then decerated the Scout Master and the "Funckkenmariechen" and the bodyguard dance the traditional carneval dance (sound track) a shy kiss for Mariechen!

The Baden-Powell centenary celebration was staged in the theatre hall of the NATO-headquarters at Mönchen-Gladbach. 500 Boy Scouts marched to the unique special ceremony. Junior Prince Carneval, Helmut I, decorated General Sir Dudley Ward, J.O. commanding Nerthern Army Group. (Commissioner for Boy Scouts in Western Europe.) (UK Scouts only.)

Sound Track: Dear Sir Dudley! I know you are a famous boy-scout. You have been so kind to invite me and these Aachen-children. I like to give you this great deceration."

o o o o o