

HOAD'S FIRST "PRO" MATCH.

Low Hoad, starts earning that record-breaking 44,000 which promoter Jack Kramer paid him to turn professional, after his Wimbledon victory. For his first match as a pro, Jack Kramer sets up his brilliant new recruit against Frank Sedgman, another Australian. Low shows he's right on top of his form.

Sedgman, serving at this end, hasn't seen much action this year.

Point to Hoad - but he doesn't have it all his own way. Frank Sedgman may not be fresh from Wimbledon, but he proves that he's still a tough opponent.

Now it's Hoad to serve....

And the return sends him sprawling - not a usual habit of this sure-footed Australian.

Match point to Hoad - and it's another ace. Victory for the Wimbledon champion in three straight sets. It's tough at the top - but then physically and mentally Low Hoad's a mighty tough character!
