In Christmastown however, there are also show-windows for grown-ups, organized with a precise mechanism, which gives material for dreams and luxury. This show-window ~~has~~ has the name of "PRESTIGE" the new Lido Cabaret Show, but it only gets under way when children are tucked in bed.

The high society of Christmastown, that is internationally known former star "Miss Maitland" lawyer Maurice Green, writer Françoise Sagan, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor, Yves Montant and his wife Simone Signoret, Jean Cocteau, are enjoying the expression of Paris' smiles and chic, even when it is under the shape of a Naples Dance.. Eddie Constantine likes St. Salvador DALI gets ideas, Maurice Chevalier, Jean Gabin, Fernand Guryay, Lucilla Torerina and Michele Morgan have children's smiles when they look at this dreamlike water chute with the mermaids who evoke the lost Paradise.

Good Bye to Christmastown... until next year!
