MIIKO TAKA ARRIVES:

A strange contrast in national types, when Miiko Taka, glamorous Japanese film star, is welcomed at Prestwick Airport by May Show of the Braemar Girls' Pipe Band. Twenty-four-year-old Miiko born in Seattle, Washington, is visiting Britain for the first time. She rocketed to fame when she was chosen to play opposite Marlon Brando in the film "Sayonara", and proved herself to be one of the most exciting film discoveries for many years.
