

KENTUCKY DERBY.

Fourteen of America's top three-year-olds battle it out in the Kentucky Derby - and it's a bleak outlook for the punters, for two of the favourites - Tim Tam and Jewel's Reward - are somewhere in the middle of the field; and the other favourite's Silky Sullivan, almost out of sight at the back.

Lincoln Road in the lead - but there's hope for the punters yet - Tim Tam's coming up fast to challenge Lincoln Road, the 45-1 long shot - and now see the breathtaking finish through the slow-motion camera - Lincoln Road on the rails is losing ground and jockey Valensuela on Tim Tam is riding the race of his life!

In the last few yards he's made it - and Tim Tam wins by $\frac{1}{2}$ a length.
