

PATHE JOURNAL

Paris, October 16. 1958

KING OF MOROCCO ON TOUR OF COUNTRY VILLAGES

35 mm. developed dupenegative : 58 meters - 193 ft

On the occasion of the great Moslem celebration of the "Mouloud" King of Morocco, Sultan Mohammed II made a tour of villages in the area of Fez and was the victim of the enthusiasm of his people. In some places, the crowd was so happy to see with their own eyes, their beloved King who is also their religious leader, that guards were overwhelmed by the delirious crowd, and our cameraman made these unusual pictures of the Moslem ruler, taken in the crowd, nearly torn off his horse etc...

@ Rep - Nasson H 2 Cam
And Leys -