

SORAYA ROMANCE HUMOUR SPREADS.

There was excitement at Rome Airport, when Princess Soraya arrived with her mother from Frankfurt. Since her divorce from the Shah of Persia, a year ago, Soraya has often been rumoured as likely to marry again. She came to Rome to meet Prince Raimondo Orsini, one of the foremost Italian noblemen. As Soraya is a Moslem, the Catholic Church is opposed to the idea of their marrying. And if she weds before her former husband, she'll lose 4,000 dollars a month alimony. Still, the Princess didn't seem at all worried at the airport.