

CAREFUL, IT'S LOADED!

This sort of thing happens in Italy, too; and there, just like here, the drill is to explain to the other chap - politely and calmly - that he was wrong. But some things you just don't expect.

Here, take it easy, I'm losing count - 18 - 19 - 20 - 21 - I think...

Yes, in the circumstances, the other chap's quite right. Forty-two eyes can't be wrong. Let's ~~just~~ just forget the whole thing.

Unfortunately, Italian police are so unreasonable. They say 21 it too many for one car...

Don't look now, but there are eight more in the boot!
