

CZECHS REVIVE SOKOL.

Mass Gymnastics on the biggest scale in the world - a speciality of Czechoslovakia in her old democratic days, are to be seen again. High spot of the festival was the display by 15,000 girls.

The girls came from all over the country. They'd perfected the routine in weeks of rehearsal at their provincial clubs; now came the big test; could they combine perfectly? Any doubt about that was soon dispelled. Prague voted the display the most beautiful it had ever seen.
