ASSASSINATION IN TOKYO:

A political rally in Tokyo is interrupted by violent death. Socialist leader Inejiro Asanuma addresses a joint gathering held by Japan's three main parties when a student suddenly rushes up.

The people who quickly fill the stage are too late to prevent two fatal thrusts with a foot-long dagger. They overpower the assassin, a 17-year-old member of an extreme right wing nationalist group. For a better look at what happened, the action is repeated, slowed down,

...and the fateful moment frozen.
Tragedy caps political turbulence in Japan.
