HAMBURG-RAHLSTEDT

Aly Horn Blowing

It is an old Bavarian custom - this horn-blowing from alpine peaks. The blowers herald the new year, but are at times not boath to give a special performance for the benefit of tourists.

The horn-blowers of the alping regions near the Chiemsee and Aschau are famous. Their horns are 4 metres long and weigh about 10 pounds. The super-horn is an attraction of the mountain-inn on the Kampenwand.
