In our modern Age, artists, just as so many other citizen are continually looking for new and striking ways of expressing themselves...

A young sportsman who is also a painter, has found a very particular way of "Heplegraphy" which, according to him, means "projection on a surface of a tip revolving in the air"...

In fact JACQUES DARNEL chooses his colors, and then complying to his Fencing Master's orders : sixte, quarte etc... makes his master piece on the white canvas the Master Pierre Lazeze has placed in front of him, in place of a fencing jacket.

each bout gives a new canvas. And... the most surprising of all is that an Art Gallery is going to make representation of this brand new kind of painting.
