

VARIETY FETE TAOISEACH.

The Variety Club of Ireland entertained as guest of honour at the Metropole, Dublin, the Taoiseach, Mr. Sean Lemass. The big occasion was marked by the presence of that Elder Statesman and International European Representative of Variety Clubs, Mr. C.J. Latta. He paid a warm tribute to the Taoiseach. Mr. Lemass deeply appreciates the great work of the Variety Club of Ireland for the blind and under privileged children of the country. In return he received a gold card of membership.

It was fitting that Variety should pay this compliment to one of Ireland's most distinguished sons.
