

AIR SHOW MAKES WEST LOOK UP

Heavy-missile carriers and new super-sonic fighters, surprised the half million onlookers at Tushino Airfield. Helicopters gave entertainment of a lighter sort.

Khrushchev and his henchmen were there, glowing with pride through out the 2-hour show.

In manned aircraft Russia is perhaps ahead of anything in the West. Khrushchev may bluff sometimes - not every time.