

ICE GLOWS WITH STARS OF THE BLADES!

Having recently completed a triumphant tour of Russia, the new Ice Capades of 1962 takes to the ice in Atlantic City. Precision in Rhythm, these 32 Ice Capets wow the spectators who are at the edge of their seats rooting for the straggler, will she make it? She does and the crowd is pleased. Known as the greatest skater today, 24-year-old Ronnie Robertson hypnotizes the audience in this spectacular performance at breath-taking speeds. Holding the highest award in skating, the Gold Medal, he spins at 120 miles per hour and is able to do 36 Axel Paulsens when six are considered astounding. Romaine and Steele are a perfection of harmony which they have achieved over five years together by practicing up to 3 hours a day. The group is scheduled to shortly begin a 47-week tour of the United States and Canada. The Sleeping Beauty, that's Eric White, a top comedy star of the show, in his 20th consecutive year. His antics on the ice, and in the audience, are a howling success.