

PAUL GETTY HOLDS PARTY

Sutton Place, Gothic home of Paul Getty - what a magnificent house for a kiddies party. Guests of the multi-millionaire, and just loving the ventriloquist where 20 children from St. Andrews Home, Reading. They're orphans, or come from broken homes. Mr. Getty, handed presents all round, including one for a 4 year old Michael Lambert the youngest there.

Next, a marvellous tea, in a room where Henry 8th once dined; though nobody at the party stopped to worry about that.

Mr. Getty earned the thanks of all the kiddies. He's promised to give them a start in life when the time comes.
