In line with the Federations attempts to eliminate all traces of colour discrimination, the Municipal baths at Mivingstene (about 6 miles from the Victoria Falls) have now become multi-racial with the result that mine whilst attendances by Asians and Africans have seared, the European patronage has dropped away almost completely.

Next Europeans are now swimming in private pools or have taken to the Zambesi about a mile from the Victoria Palls, where swimming is described as "suicidal" due to the erocodiles in the waters. Hermally this part of the river has never been utilised as a swimming spot, but most Europeans now swimming there say that they'd rather take a chance on the groes! To date no fatalaties due to erocodiles have occurred here, but swimming almost anywhere in the Zamiesi may be consided extremely hemerdows-
