19th January, 1962.

To: News Editors and Fashion Editors.

You are cordially invited to a Press Preview of a musical and dancing Dress Show, "FASHIONS FOR YOU - SPRING 1962" in CELANESE HOUSE, Hanover Square, W. 1. on SUNDAY, 4th FEBRUARY at 6 p.m. Michael Whittaker, who is producing, has devised an entirely new technique for the Show when he will be presenting some of the Collections from the Houses of Stark, Hartnell, Hardy Amies and many others.

The following will act as comperes:-

BARBARA GOALEN
MARY HILL
McDONALD HOBLEY
PATRICIA LAFFAN

ELIZABETH LONDON
ALAN WHEATLEY
JAYNE WILSON-STRINGER
BARBARA WIMBUSH

and SEVENTY male and female mannequins (many of them teenagers) will take part in 24 colourful sets depicting scenes such as a "Wedding at St. Margaret's", "A Highland Ball", "Ascot Enclosure" and "Other People's Babies".

The Dress Show will be repeated on Monday, February 5th at 7.30 p.m. for the benefit of the British Red Cross Society's County of London Branch. Because this Branch urgently needs funds those responsible for organising the Show and taking part in it are giving their services to the Red Cross.

In view of the postal "go-slow" perhaps you would kindly telephone, letting us know whether or not you will be represented at the Press Preview on Sunday, February 4th by a reporter and/or photographer.

E.C. Graham,
Director, Press & Publicity.
