

2-181011

62/39

U. S. STRENGTH IN AIR.

Notable visitor to Eglin Airforce Base was President Kennedy, guest for the special occasion of General Curtis Le May. On show, America's manned aircraft. Vice President Johnson and Air Force Secretary Zuckert, also there. It's not all guided missiles nowadays. In the field of conventional weapons are the deadly napalm bombs.

The President saw a demonstration of refuelling in the air.

A plane with no pilot was the target of fighters which with rockets made short work of it.