

2-202580
PATHE GAZETTE: 40/7. (DUBLIN REEL)

ICE SKATING CHAMPIONSHIP

At a near London reservoir skaters line up for the Baker Cup race of 220 yards straight. A thrilling all out dash over the ice that the clerk of the weather doesn't allow very often. And they're off for the second heat, keen young amateurs with hope in their hearts and wings on their feet. First to glide home after a grand race is Fred Tomlin.