

5-518700
PATHE GAZETTE: 40/22

NEW ZEALAND SAIL

The first pictures of New Zealand diggers leaving their home land for the great adventure as their fathers did before them. Those white bags there madam are for washing to be hung out on the Seigfried Line. A thrill runs through Wellington City, throughout the nation. New Zealand bids au revoir to her sons, with sadness of parting, with pride in her sacrifice.