SUPREME WAR COUNCIL, MEETS IN LONDON.

So Britain welcomes the members of the new French Government..... and the Commanders of her forces.

There's Admiral of the French Fleet D'arlan..... and General Gamelin.

And the new French Premier M. Paul Reynaud.

S
After the meeting Britain and France issue a solemn declaration, binding their two peoples still more closely. It declares to the world that the changes of Government of France will mean no change in the co-operation between the two nations.

The understanding between Mr. Chamberlain and M. ~~Reynaud~~ Reynaud.... will be as complete as that between Mr. Chamberlain and M. Daladier.

And there's perfect co-operation too between the heads of the Allied forces. Our armies will fight side by side, our air forces will fly together.... and to co-operate with the brave sailors of France....
the Royal Navy is here too.
