PICTURED PARAGRAPHS FROM THE WORLDS NEWS.

From all over the world our cameras bring you the faces of people in the news.

Vivian Jenkins has just married Susan Fraser. Jenkins has been capped fourteen times as a Welsh Rigger international. But he's in the army now.

London....Arriving from France is a welcome ~~figure~~ visitor, M. Frossard, the new French Minister of Information. He's come over to meet Sir. John Reith. M. Frossard was once the Editor of a French Newspaper, so he should know something about the problems of those whose job it is to present the news.

Australia....Pennies from Heaven.....Although the gentleman tells us that "he's no angel". So thousands of kids dive in to find the sunken treasure. Why do they do it? Just an old Australian custom.

Boy you spilt a mouthful. Mr. Churchill has made another stirring fighting speech. In fact these days he looks in fighting mood. He mentioned Holland, describing how at the very moment when the Dutch were shooting down one of our planes in the name of neutrality, one of our submarines was saving the lives of eight Dutch Seamen. These men are now in hospital at a Scottish Port. When the trawler in which they were fishing disappeared, the Nazis said.... "she must have struck a British mine." As usual the Nazis were lying.
