BOMBS IN SUSSEX.

The Germans have made another of their typical attacks....

on unfortified positions.... a poultry farm in Sussex.

But we must admit that this one was a Nazi Bomber in difficulties with our fighters and Anti Aircraft guns. So in order to make a quicker get away. <sup>111</sup> ~~111~~ he dropped his bombs and they landed on the chicken farm.

Its hard luck on the chickens.... but fortunate that no one else was hurt by the big explosion.

And now Pathe Gazette presents an exclusive interview with some of the survivors.
