PARIS BOMBED.

Paris the Capital city of France... Paris has had her Baptism of fire. Now the nazis even kill her cows in the fields.

In their first raid on the Capital.... the German Bombers dropped nearly 1,100 bombs. The killed and wounded number nearly a thousand. Some bombs fell on a school....and many of the children are now dead. One hospital was completely wrecked. This is the mark of the Hun, on one of the loveliest cities in Europe.

Paris after her baptism of fire remains calm.... While the world shudders at this greatest ~~outrage~~ outrage.

We need only quote the words of an American Journalist. "Cities like Paris are the Jewels of Western Civilisation". With this new sacrilege of German brutality... the fury of all civilised peoples will burn so fiercely, that it will certainly destroy the Nazi system... which can unloose such horrors upon the world.
