NAZI AIRMEN

Tanek prisoner by a British Destroyer, after being shot down into the sea by our fighter planes, these Nazi airmen ended their short-lived bombing raid over the East Coast, in the custody of an armed escort.

Out of the crew of four - two sustained injuries, and their despatch to hospital and internment camp is carried out, by men who know how to observe the rules of clean fighting. Lets hope that many more will take a bath in the sea - it would do them a lot of good.....

MONKS HARVESTING

~~and~~ when it comes to doing good, the Monks of St. John of God Hospital are busy bringing in the hay on their hospital farm. Mostly from France, the Monks of this Order give much of their time and energy, ministering to the needs of hundreds of cripples from all over the Country.

Haymaking and stacking at the best of times is warm work - but when long robes are worn under a burning sun.... then it's high time to roll out downy-ghu

the barrel.
