COURT NEWS FROM THE U.S.A.

Gardner Malloy teamed with Henry Kossoff, serves first in the National Doubles in Brooklyn, Mass. Johnny Kramer and his fellow Californian Ted Schroeder are the opponents and the young West Coast team is playing a brilliant game. It's fast vivid striking for the top tennis title, but Malloy and Kossoff lack the power to hold the youngsters. Malloy's service starts a hotly contested point but now the coast team break through to be hailed as the youngest tennis pair within memory to win the National Doubles title.

In the Women's Doubles it's Mrs. John Van Ryan with Miss Dorothy Bundy against the team of Alice Marble and Sarah Palfrey.

The Marble-Palfrey team is fighting for its fourth consecutive doubles title and it looks as if they are on their way to repeat. The challengers remain a real threat with their stylish play, but the champions retain their crowns. Miss Marble scores right down the centre of the court for match point.
