

MR. CHURCHILL SEES FOR HIMSELF.

The Prime Minister is thorough in everything he does.

With Mrs. Churchill he makes a tour of London Docks and expresses himself forcefully on all he sees. Mr. Churchill is pleased with the Home Guard, and says so. And when in the course of his tour a ferryload of well-wishers passes, he acknowledges their cheers with a sign we all know so well.

Father Thames welcomes the Prime Minister.