

MR. CHURCHILL IN SCOTLAND.

The Prime Minister, accompanied by Mrs. Churchill, visits coast defences of Scotland.

The Premier inspects Polish troops who have taken over defence of a sector of the coast. Their style of marching is somewhat strange to our eyes, but their fighting qualities are renowned.

Later, Mr. Churchill, in another hat, please note, visits a naval depot ship. If his smiles are any indication of his thoughts, he has a good opinion of all he sees, and I don't think I'm wrong if I say we all have a very good opinion of him.
