CANADA'S ARMY GROWS.

The Governor General of Canada, His Excellency the Earl of Athlone, accompanied by the Premier Mr. McKenzie King, visits Valcartier Camp, Canada's great Military Training ~~Group~~ Centre, and sees young dominion soldiers in the making. By the time the Sergeant Majors have finished with these Rookies, they'll be as business like as the regulars. On every face is written, something or other which I can't see for the moment.

They've only been at it for a few days but after all every soldier was a raw recruit once, so keep atit fellers.
