GENERAL DE GAULLE VISITS FREE FRENCH NAVY.

General de Gaulle, leader of All Free Frenchmen, visits units of the Free French Navy, which is co-operating with the British Navy in its relentless war on Nazi-ism.

After visiting Le Triomphant, General de Gaulle goes aboard the famous submarine SURCOUF, now of the Free French Naval Forces. The General is proud of the men who have rallied to his call. We, on our part, greet him and his followers as brothers in arms, in the struggle which can end only when dictator States have been reduced to the condition they deserve.
