RHYTHM ON THE RINK.

With the rest of the world treading on thin ice, Pittsburgh salutes the Skating Season, with a show down on the rink. They call this the Ice-capades pf 1941, a fast moving, thrilling spectacle with the spotlight on rhythm.

A study in glástening grace; Wtach Belita, the show's star twirler. There's a girl who certainly gets around.

In ten easy les ons, he learnt to skate. They're going to make him a present of another ten.

But don't kid yourself. To skate like that you've got to be good - and he's not bad.
