CHRISTMAS ON THE WAY.

From Coast to Coast in America, Parades and Pageants ~~mark~~ herald the coming of Christmas. A huge Helium inflated figure of Uncle Sam leads the procession down Broadway. It's just another good reason for that holiday mood in the big city. Balloon figures are blown up for the big blow-out, as New Yorkers make hey-hey while the fun shines.

The Old Man himself.

Like an A.R.P. Warden's Nightmare, the Gay White Way is flooded with light as Miss Liberty leads the Hollywood Parade. A dazzling Yuletide preview down Santa Claus Lane.

Movie Star Leo Carille joins the Carnival under a battery of flash lights, arc lamps, spot lights, fairy lights, and just -- lights. It's New York's way of saying that "Christmas is just around the corner".
