

PATHE GAZETTE: 41/22. (DUBLIN)

MODERN LIGHT BRIGADE

Midget cars as troop carriers is one of Uncle Sam's latest surprises. You can get a good idea of their size by comparing them with a plane, and they get through almost anywhere, up the steepest gradients and in and out of the thickest forest, and can they move. Each of these tiny cars is a mobile machine gun nest. Though they're small they're allowed to smoke, and they can lay a good screen. As a matter of fact they have given given such a good account of themselves that nearly five thousand have been ordered and will soon be in service. Tiny, but awful tough!