

MULE A MINUTE MOTORBOATING.

Regatta day at Miami brings the outboard speedboats, skimming Biscayne Bay over a 15 mile course. One of these babies has only to get out of control for a second and here's what happens:

Clean out of the water, hurdling the Beacon and a line of ~~cars~~ cars and ends up owing ~~expense~~ expense for parking.

Well skipper, you've got something there. Sell the idea to the Italian navy.
